Kids Make Memories at The Sebastian - Vail

VAIL, Colo. – Summer 2017 – It’s a kids’ world, and we’re just living in it. At least that’s how it feels at Battle Mountain Kids’ Camp at The Sebastian – Vail. Kids can play and explore to their heart’s content all year round at Battle Mountain, which creates a five-star experience for guests of all ages.

Whether parents need a little me time, or simply want to ensure the best in mountain entertainment for their little ones, Battle Mountain doesn’t disappoint. Activities are diverse and led by specially trained and experienced counselors (referred to as Sherpas). Themes and excursions change daily and range from guided off-site hikes and nature excursions to arts, cooking and science. Evening events include movies, s’mores, and board games.

On-arrival activity packs and snacks are provided. To provide the most appropriate and entertaining activities, groups are divided into Hikers (ages 7-10) and Mountaineers (ages 11-12).

Families also can take advantage of an in-room Movie Night, where movies, fresh-popped popcorn and movie candy will be delivered right to the room. The knowledgeable and full-service concierge can also assist with arranging for babysitters or numerous kids activities available throughout Vail.
