

ON

issue no. 105
TRAVEL 2021

the Travel issue

Streamsong
Resort

Hotel
Crescent
Court

West Fort Lauderdale

Pelican Grand
Beach Resort

Aruba Marriott
Resort &
Stellaris Casino

PRSRPT STD
US POSTAGE PAID INNOVATIVE DIRECT MEDIA

INNOVATIVE DIRECT MEDIA
7274 Elm St, Frisco, TX 75034-5748

THE SEBASTIAN – VAIL

---

Brimming with character, The Sebastian – Vail is an exclusive boutique resort and private residence club offering guests a sophisticated and luxurious vacation experience in the heart of Vail Valley.

Featuring an intimate atmosphere filled with sweeping views of the mountains, The Sebastian – Vail is the perfect destination for families and couples alike. With convenient ski-in/ski-out access at the base of Vail Mountain, the adventure concierge ensures owners and guests will step into warm ski boots and onto the gondola. The expert rental team has gear ready and waiting slope side. Return to Base Camp throughout the day to fuel up, tune up, or shed a layer as the sun warms the slopes. In the summer months, The Sebastian Base Camp serves as a one-stop shop for all hiking and mountain biking needs, from equipment rentals to mechanical assistance.

With 84 luxury hotel rooms, 16 executive suites and 7 residential suites, The Sebastian – Vail's indulgent accommodations exude comfortable elegance, offering a home away from home in the summer and a warm, inviting oasis in the winter. Each suite is adorned with custom-designed furnishings and fabrics and the finest amenities, such as 400 thread count Egyptian cotton sheets. For a truly exclusive holiday, twelve guests can stay in 5,300 square foot Grand Galeric Penthouse. Featuring five bedrooms, five and a half bathrooms, media room, dining room with a cathedral skylight, full kitchen and spacious living room with enticing fireplace, the one-of-a-kind penthouse defines mountain luxury with 360° views and an awe-inspiring art collection featuring notable Mexican artists.

For guests who wish to make their stay more permanent, the Sebastian - Vail features a private residence club with 36 two, three and four-bedroom residences. Starting at $355,000, The Residences at The Sebastian Vail offers owners an unprecedented number of benefits beyond effortless ownership of a luxurious private residence, including pre-arrival grocery shopping, in-residence chefs and cocktail parties, a personal concierge to assist with restaurant reservations, transportation, and VIP access to the slope-side Sebastian Base Camp. Owning a residence includes four planned vacation weeks that can be used at the Residences at Sebastian Vail and the opportunity to trade weeks for a stay at any Residence within the Timbers Resorts portfolio as a part of the Timbers Resorts Reciprocity Program, empowering owners to spend their winters slopeside and summers sipping wine in Tuscany.

The prominent art that decorates the accommodations continues throughout the entire resort. Guests can enjoy an impressive collection of paintings and sculptures from renowned artists such as Manuel Felguérez, Victor Chaca, Gunter Gerzso and Leonora Carrington. Leonora Carrington's influence is seen throughout The Sebastian - Vail, but her name resides on the Alpine-inspired bistro, Leonora. Leonora offers an inviting dining experience inspired by the French Alps, Spanish Pyrenees and the Colorado Rockies with a menu flowing from tapas and shareables into larger plates that revere alpine flavors and meticulously paired with wines from around the world. The most famous dish on the menu is the chef's signature fried chicken with barrel-aged Fresno hot sauce, real dill pickles and poblano bacon biscuit. mom and dad can enjoy some much-needed relaxation and rejuvenation at the Bloom Spa. Bloom's treatments focus on six core areas: Thrive, Nourish, Flourish, Luxuriate, Glow and Refresh, featuring products by the acclaimed San Francisco-based spa consulting team Francis & Alexander.

A true haven, The Sebastian - Vail is rich in moments where guests can spend their days exploring all the quaint mountain town has to offer and nights toasting memories that are sure to last a lifetime.