October 31, 2024 (Vail, Colo.) – The Sebastian-Vail – A Timbers Resort, Vail's premier boutique resort and private residence club set in the heart of Vail Village, has appointed Kate Grattan as its new general manager. In this role, Grattan is responsible for overseeing daily operations for the property to ensure the commercial success and continuing to elevate its world-class services and amenities for both Owners and guests.

“Kate is a true Colorado expert, whose extensive experience in Vail and unwavering commitment to guest satisfaction will further strengthen the property's identity in one of the world's most sought-after destinations,” stated Brian Corbett, COO of Timbers Company. “Her talent for fostering unique partnerships will deliver outstanding results for our Owners, while her innovative leadership style and passion for professional development will both empower and inspire our team to deliver memorable moments Timbers is known for across the globe.”

Grattan's extensive career in the hospitality industry spans over 25 years, bringing a wide breadth of knowledge both in management as well as the greater ski resort region. Throughout her time in the industry, she has held various general manager positions both at The Lodge at Vail and Austria Haus Hotel and oversaw the opening of several new Vail Resorts development projects in Breckenridge, including the townhomes at Mountain Thunder Lodge, Crystal Peak Lodge and One Ski Hill Place. Most recently, Grattan served as managing director of Colorado for CoralTree Hospitality overseeing both the Vail and Snowmass markets.

“The Sebastian – Vail is beloved as a sanctuary of luxury right here in the heart of Vail Village, and I'm delighted to further establish our presence with Vail's most impressive hotel art collection, thoughtful and enticing culinary options, and a seamless, authentic experience from the moment our Owners and guests are welcomed in,” said Grattan. “As part of the Timbers Resorts family, I take great pride in anticipating and meeting the needs of our Owners, guests, and associates, while fostering unique relationships. It's a privilege to lead such an extraordinary property and outstanding team.”

As a resident of Colorado since 1999, Grattan is deeply involved with the local community, and has received recognition for her community involvement, and industry accolades for guest service and financial performance.
